Information about the proposed purchase

The technical assessment for a possible purchase is free of charge. A separate inspection report is not included. A purchase is concluded only once we have agreed on the price and conditions.

Please do not send the device until we have confirmed the arrangements. The seller bears the costs agreed in advance for shipping to us and any return shipment.

Any purchase is subject to the terms and conditions provided and agreed before the contract is concluded.

By signing, I confirm that I own the device or am authorised to sell it. I consent to the free technical assessment.
